

PROGRAM INTERNATIONAL CRIIGEN SEMINAR

March 6-9, 2014

Le Mas de Rivet, Barjac, France

Thursday 6

5.30 pm Departure of the bus (21 persons) from Avignon TGV station

7 pm Arrival in Le Mas de Rivet, Route de Bessas, 30430 Barjac

7.30 pm Appetizer, drink. Welcome by Dr Joël Spiroux de Vendômois, CRIIGEN President ;

Objectives and presentation of the program by Prof. Gilles-Eric Séralini, Chairman and President of Scientific Council

Dinner Natural and Organic. All the quality meals are prepared by the Chef Jérôme Douzelet who will come sometimes to explain his work on cooking without GMOs or pesticides during the stay, and on preparing meals respecting environment and health. Short Who's Who presentation of all participants.

PROGRAM INTERNATIONAL CRIIGEN SEMINAR

Friday 7

8-8.45 Breakfast, the room has to be free each day expressly at 8.45 for the meeting room preparation, two lounges and the garden are available for interviews, rests, informal discussions, phone calls. When entering the conference room, please keep your mobile phones happy to be awakened afterwards.

9.30 (20 min + 10) Dr Christian Vélot, GMOs, definition, surprising ones and recent developments

10 Prof Gilles-Eric Séralini, 15 years of research on GMOs, pesticides, and various xenobiotics toxicities

11 am Debate with all participants, Answers to critics : Why there is a long term toxicity of Roundup-tolerant GMOs and Glyphosate-based herbicides

12 am Free time out of the room

12.40-14 Lunch

2 pm Free time out of the room (or before for coffee outside) – Visit of the garden

3 pm Claire Robinson (30 min) The lobby network : how they construct their defamations – Winning against the lobbies

3.30 pm Dr J Pete Myers (20 min + 10) Electronic jiu-jitsu in the service of new science

4.00 pm Debate with all participants, Experiences and questions on how to shed a new light on reality on the matter, deficiencies of assessments

4.30 pm Pause

5 pm Second part of the debate

6 pm Free time out of the room

7.30 pm Dinner End out of the room for preparations 11 pm maximum

PROGRAM INTERNATIONAL CRIIGEN SEMINAR

Saturday 8

8-8.45 Breakfast, the room has to be free each day expressly at 8.45 for the meeting room preparation, two lounges and the garden are available for interviews, rests, informal discussions, phone calls.

9.30 (20 min + 10) Dr Robin Mesnage, Are pesticides really assessed ? New discoveries on a common unexpected way to enhance admissible daily intakes. Cocktail effects : are they really the ones we first think about ?

10 Debate with all participants, How to think differently about pesticides assessments ?

11.30 Pictures of the group outside and visit of the Mayor of the village with an organic restaurant in the school, visit of french journalists for interviews

12.30 Lunch

2 pm Free time out of the room (or before for coffee outside) – Visit of the garden and surroundings

3 pm Nicolas Defarge (20 min + 10) Crucial experimental and unexpected discoveries on how to enhance the background of so-called « natural » tumors and « non biologically significant » side effects found during regulatory assessments of GMOs, pesticides, chemicals and medical drugs.

3.30 pm Debate with all participants, Experiences and questions on how to shed a new light on reality on this new matter, deficiencies of assessments

4.30 pm Pause

5 pm Second part of the debate

5.30 pm Dr Christian Vélot Experimental data on Roundup applied on a soil microorganism : why does it challenge the substantial equivalence hypothesis ?

6 pm Free time out of the room

7.30 pm Dinner End out of the room for preparations 11 pm maximum

PROGRAM INTERNATIONAL CRIIGEN SEMINAR

Sunday 9

8-8.45 Breakfast, the room has to be free each day expressly at 8.45 for the meeting room preparation, two lounges and the garden are available for interviews, rests, informal discussions, phone calls. When entering the conference room, please keep your mobile phones happy to be awakened afterwards. The luggage have to be in the lobby.

9.30 (20 min + 10) Dr Joël Spiroux de Vendômois, Chair, Conclusion and what new projects ? Debate with all participants, debriefing.

11.30 Last rest out of the room

12.30 Lunch – End of the meeting

2 pm Bus departure from Le Mas de Rivet to Avignon TGV

ooo